

Swindon Heritage Magazine Winter 2015

1. The return to STEAM of the iconic, Swindon-built locos, King George V and the City of Truro. They launch the celebration of Swindon's achievements since New Swindon was founded in 1841. P.4
2. Harry Potter and the Hogwarts Express in Orlando, Florida. P18
3. Midwife Jane Allen, 101 years old, talks about her life working in the Maternity Hospital at Kingshill House. P22
4. American descendants of the St John family at Lydiard Park, visit to learn more details of the colourful past of their ancestors. P28
5. Pre-fabs. Temporary houses and bungalows in Swindon after World War 11. p32
6. The tragedy of John Ponting, killed on the railway in 1907. p36
7. Tribute to Mark Child, Swindon historian and writer. P39
8. History of Old Shaw Lane. P40
9. Swindon's contribution to the Allies victory in World War 11. A complex manufacturing project spread over several sites such as South Marston, Blundson, Sevenhampton and a carriage working shed at the Railway Works, enabled heavy armaments, midget submarines, landing craft and whole wings, for example of the Stirling bomber, to be made. P43
10. Swindon's last Spitfire. The dream of building a replica lane is realised but is short-lived. P46
11. Dr John Clements writes of his early days in General Practice in Shrivenham. P50
12. An account of two legendary landladies with fearsome reputations in the 19th century, Sally Pussey at the Wheatsheaf and Fanny Stroud at the Rat Trap. P52
13. James Henry 'Jimmy' Thomas MP. An awe inspiring account of a heroic working class struggle from a disadvantaged background to become an MP and later, a member of the Cabinet. His energetic political activities started when he was a fireman at the Railway Works in Swindon. P54
14. Visit the Corinium Museum at Cirencester and see how the Romans lived, worked and played in a town that was second only to London. P57

- 15 Large scale mural artists in Swindon following internationally known hero Ken White who hails from Swindon. P60
- 16 Nicola Cornick's best selling Regency novelist speaks of her plans to base her next novel either at Lydiard House or in Old Town, Swindon. P62
- 17 Votes for Women. A mock suffragette march and rally remember Edith New, a key figure in the Suffragette Movement, and who was born in Swindon. P64
- 18 Swindon remembers and honours Sqn Ldr Harold Starr in a week of events marking the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Britain culminating in a flypast of 4 Spitfires and 2 Hurricanes over Harold's grave in the Radnor Street cemetery. Harold Starr was one of The Few, immortalised by Churchill, who fought in the Battle of Britain. Several local schools were involved in projects to remember this 25 year old Swindon man who was killed in action. P66
- 19 History of the Wesleyan church in the Railway Village. P74
- 20 Tubby Clayton of Toc H fame and his connection with Swindon. P78