Shrivenham Parish, in the County of Berkshire until 1974 and thereafter in Oxfordshire, consisted of the adjacent villages of Watchfield, with the Tythings of Becket and Stainswick, and Bourton. Watchfield has been a settlement since very early times, as evidenced by the discovery of a Saxon cemetery in 1985. It became well known in the 2nd World War for its training airfield, now back in agricultural use, and since then for the proximity of the Royal Military College of Science built in the extensive grounds of Becket House. Services are held at 6.30 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Sundays, and Holy Communion at 9 a.m. every Sunday.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks go to the PCC of Shrivenham and Watchfield and Canon J. M. Wade for giving permission for the Registers to be copied; to Berkshire Record Office for their co-operation in allowing the Registers to be removed from their care while being transcribed; to Mr Curtis, churchwarden, for making it a pleasant and interesting experience visiting the church and borrowing the Burial Register; to Rosemary Church for the transcription, indexing and typing of the Registers.

COPIES deposited at Berkshire Record Office; Oxford Record Office; Wiltshire Record Office; Society of Genealogists; St Thomas Church, Watchfield.

Transcribed, indexed and typed by Rosemary Church, Faringdon and District Archaeological and Historical Society

Found in the front of the Baptismal Register 1858-1946

Watchfield Chapel having been examined and found in bad repair was taken down in 1788 the materials sold and the money arising from the sale of the materials was vested in the purchase of £260 4s 1d three per cent consols & the interest was appropriated to pay a schoolmistress to instruct a certain number of the poor children of Watchfield. In consequence of the pulling down of the Chapel the inhabitants of Watchfield were obliged to go to the Parish Church of Shrivenham, this being found inconvenient & the cause of many never coming to Church at all, it was determined at a meeting held at Mr Bowles at Watchfield in February 1857, that the Chapel should be rebuilt on a piece of ground called Chapel Ham & that subscriptions should be commenced forthwith; and the following persons & societies kindly gave their assistance.

The New Chapel was designed by Mr Street, Diocesan Architect & was Built by Mr Birchall of Shrivenham. The foundation stone was laid by Lady C. Berens, wife of Archdeacon Berens, Vicar, on Monday May 18th 1857 and the Chapel was consecrated by Samuel Wilberforce Bishop of Oxford March 4th 1858. The Prayers were said by Rev. C. B. Calley, Curate. Mrs Calley played the harmonium; Viscountess Barrington & the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Misses Barrington led the singing. The Chapel was dedicated to St Thomas the Apostle, which was the same Saint the former one had been dedicated to; the Chapel yard was consecrated at the same time.
